

Timothy & Co.

A New Chapter in Tiffany & Co.'s Story

By: CJ Frederickson, Marielle Seigel, Kristina Urberg, & Josie Zillig

“[Men] still see Tiffany as a female-based proposition, just because of its heritage and even things like the color of the boxes. It could be quite difficult for them to really persuade male customers that they have something to offer and that is relevant to them.”*

- Neil Saunders, Managing Director of GlobalData

Our survey aimed to understand the jewelry preferences and buying behaviors of men aged 18-24 to help Timothy & Co. better serve this target market.

Types of Jewelry Worn

Frequency of Wear

Spending Habits

Desired Style &
Brand
Aesthetic

Primary Research Findings

Research Question: How likely are you to walk into a store with the following aesthetic?

Results:

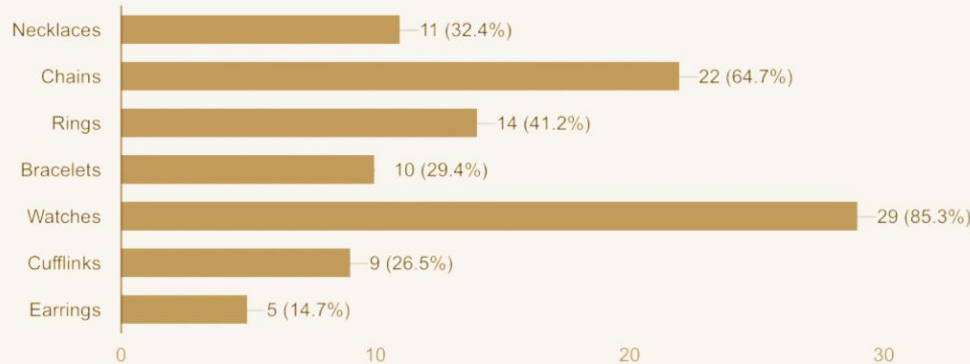

Primary Research Findings

1. Types of Jewelry Worn:

Respondents wear mostly watches (85.3%) and chains (64.7%), followed by rings (41.2%) and bracelets (29.4%).

What is the type of jewelry that you wear? (select all that apply)

34 responses

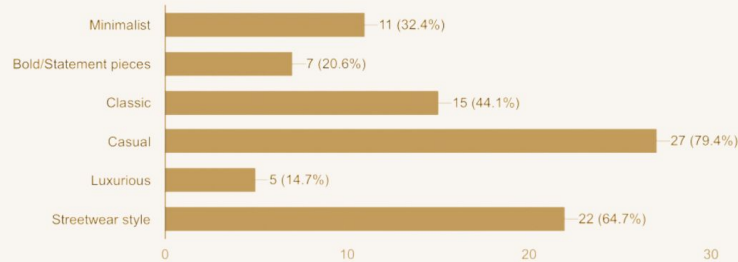

Primary Research Findings

2. Desired Styles of Jewelry

Most jewelry-wearing men prefer casual (79.4%) or streetwear style (64.7%) jewelry

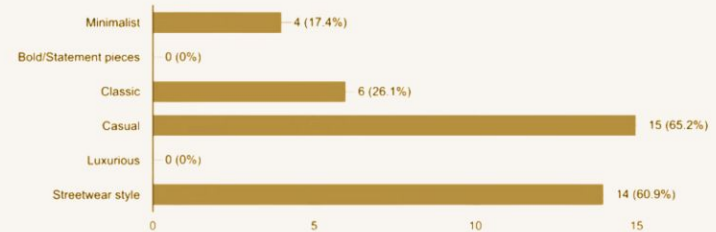

What type of jewelry would you like to see more of?

34 responses

What styles of jewelry would you like to see more of?

23 responses

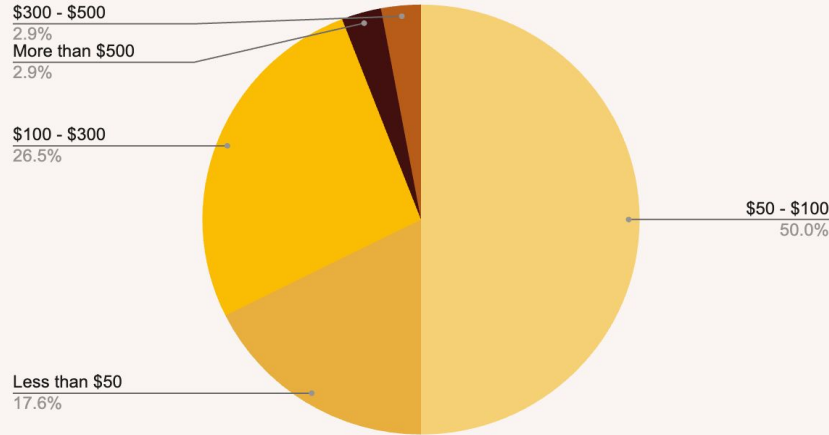

Primary Research Findings

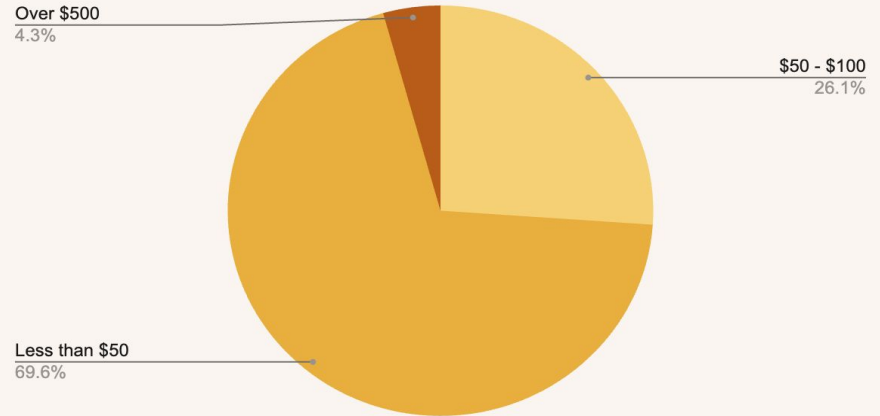

3. Preferred Price Range

Most respondents spend or are willing to spend under $50 or between $50 and $100 on jewelry.

How much do you usually/are you willing to spend on jewelry?

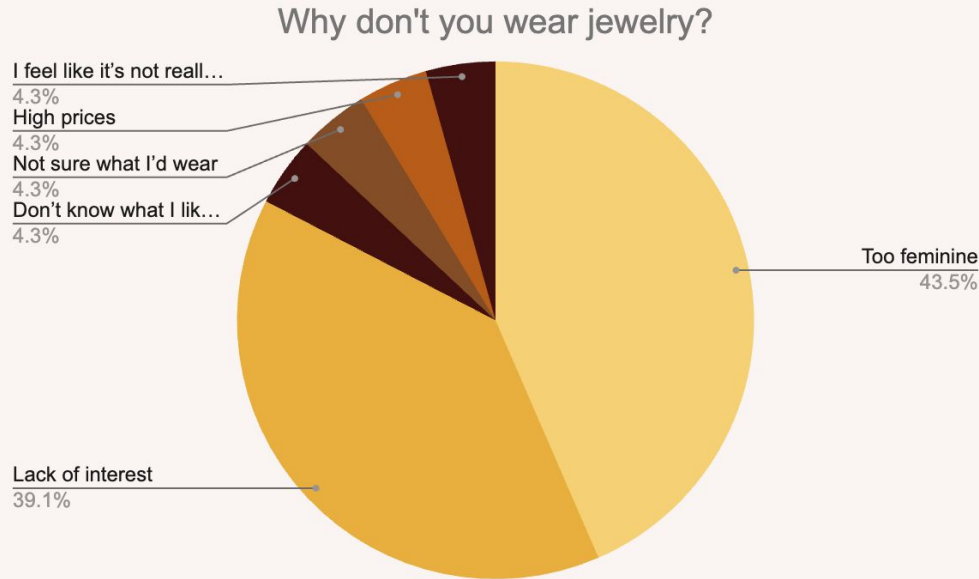

What price range would make you consider purchasing jewelry for personal use?

Primary Research Findings

4. Reasons for Not Buying Jewelry

The most common reason that respondents do not wear jewelry is because they perceive it as too feminine.

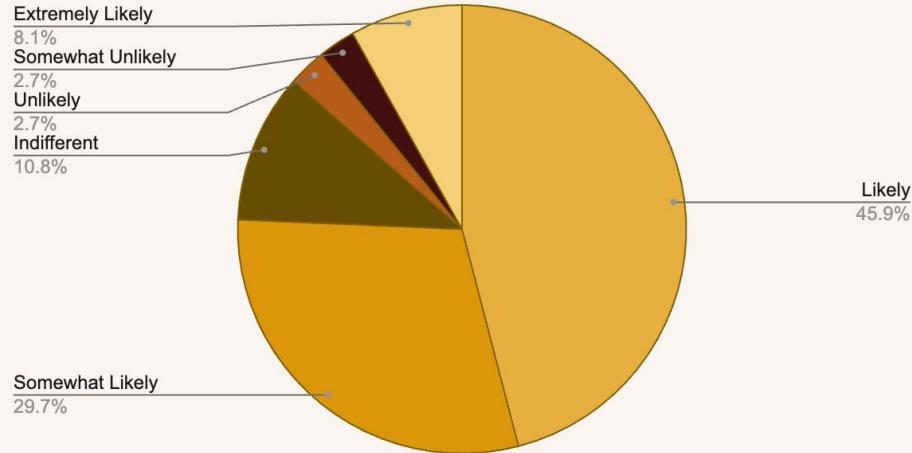

Primary Research Findings

5. Important Purchasing Factors:

- Affordability
- Celebrity Endorsements

If luxury pieces were available and you could afford them, how likely would you be to purchase jewelry?

Secondary Market Research Findings

Male Preferences

- Preferred Type & Style of Jewelry
 - Watches
 - Minimalist and masculine jewelry
 - Gold
- Influencing & Social Media
 - Close friends and public figures “[significantly] impact” men’s’ jewelry choices
 - 24% of men look to social media for inspiration
 - Men prefer shopping online for jewelry

Sector Trends

- A Growing Industry

- An overall pattern of growth from 2021 to 2023*
- Forecasted CAGR of 8.4% from 2024 to 2032
- Relatively low competition

- Style Changes

- New materials
- More male jewelry consumption

Positioning Approach for Timothy & Co.

- Continue to emphasize the quality and tradition of Tiffany & Co. while running campaigns that target a younger audience*
- Utilize Tiffany & Co.'s reputation as a reliable brand to appeal to buyers during periods of “[uncertainty]”

Market Research Insights & Product Strategy

- High-quality, yet affordable jewelry
 - The Product
 - Gold-plated watch
 - Maintain Tiffany & Co. quality
 - The Design:
 - Casual, minimalist, and masculine
- Our Marketing Strategy:
 - Celebrity endorsements
 - Dwayne (The Rock) Johnson and Ryan Reynolds
 - Social media ads

Marketing Materials

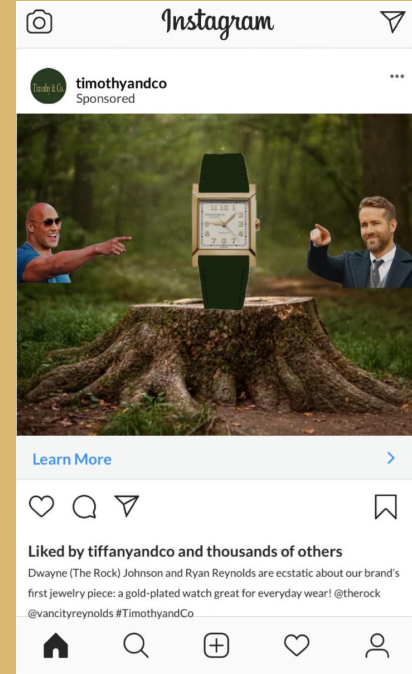

Visual

Logo

Timothy & Co.

Instagram Ad

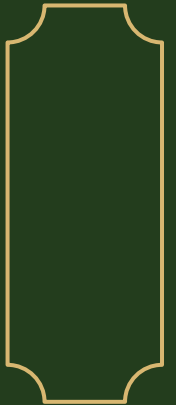

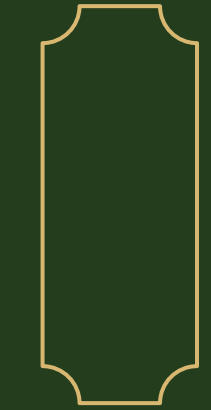

TIFFANY & CO.

Conclusion

Timothy & Co.

Thank you!

Please see our references here:

Any questions?

